

It's a fact – children are drawn to stories. TEAM missionaries around the world use creative arts such as puppeteering to tell children the true story of God's love, and how he beautifully created each of them for a purpose. The Bible comes to life as missionaries use a variety of artistic ways to share the gospel in a way that meets children on their level.

PUPPETS

GUATEMALA PUPPET MINISTRY

12

OF COUNTRIES WHERE
TEAM MISSIONARY'S
PUPPETS ARE USED

SUPPLIES NEEDED TO MAKE 75 PUPPETS FOR PUPPET SHOWS THAT SHARE THE GOSPEL MESSAGE WITH CHILDREN

3
CANS OF CONTACT
CEMENT

4
BED-SIZED PIECES OF FOAM

20
SWEATSHIRTS

2
YARDS OF FELT

2
SHEETS OF CARDBOARD

5
POUNDS OF STUFFING

150
EYES

6
YARDS OF POLAR
FLEECE

$225
COST ($3 AVG.
PER PUPPET)

375
HOURS OF WORK
(5 HOURS PER PUPPET)

30

OF STUDENTS FROM 8 DIFFERENT
LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES AT SETECA SEMINARY IN GUATEMALA
WHO HAVE SERVED AS PUPPETEERS

5

OF LANGUAGES SPOKEN BY
PUPPETEERS (SPANISH, 3 MAYAN LANGUAGES, AND CHINESE)
DURING PUPPET SHOWS