

In countries where openly serving as a missionary is not safe or accepted, the best way to serve the community and make disciples is to seek local employment or launch a new business. Through business-as-missions (BAM) initiatives, TEAM missionaries are entering the workforce and becoming creative entrepreneurs all over the world.

ENTREPRENEURIAL/ BUSINESS

400 MILLION ENTREPRENEURS
54 COUNTRIES

THE GLOBAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP MONITOR (GEM) 2011 GLOBAL REPORT

EARLY-STAGE ENTREPRENEURS

163 M
WOMEN

69 M
OFFERING INNOVATIVE PRODUCTS + SERVICES

165 M
YOUNG (18-25)

18 M
SELLING 25%
INTERNATIONALLY

TEAM HAS 130 SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES IN OVERSEAS BUSINESSES

BARISTA AT THE SONRISE CAFÉ IN TOKYO, JAPAN

DIRECTOR FOR PRINTSHOP THAT PRODUCES CHRISTIAN
LITERATURE IN CHAD

FARM/AGRICULTURAL
MANAGER FOR A RANCH
IN MEXICO

MESSAGE THERAPIST TO
HELP START A DAY SPA
BUSINESS IN MYANMAR

SMALL BUSINESS/
SAVINGS CLUB TRAINER
TO HELP FAMILIES START
INCOME-GENERATING
PROJECTS AND SAVINGS
CLUBS IN SOUTH AFRICA

JOB SKILLS
COORDINATOR HELPING PEOPLE ESCAPE A LIFE
OF DIGGING IN A
GARBAGE DUMP IN GUATEMALA