

POST-CHRISTIAN AND POST-MODERN

In most developed countries, youth — and many adults — increasingly see the world with skeptical eyes that question prevailing notions of truth, authority, and cultural values. Post-modernism is a broadly used term, but at the very least it has implications for how the gospel is understood and how it must be lived out and communicated.

TEAM workers believe that Jesus loves skeptics and is big enough to handle their doubts. We've served for decades in post-Christian cities and countries that are becoming, in many ways, the least-reached people groups of the 21st century. In Europe, Asia and Australia, we are united by a passion to build long-lasting relationships and care for our neighbors in ways that will draw them closer to a transforming knowledge of Christ.

QUICK FACTS:

Post-Christian culture is most prevalent in Europe, where atheism, agnosticism, and cult-like beliefs are on the rise.

Service opportunities include working with women and children at risk, teaching, healthcare and more.

The purpose of TEAM is to help churches send missionaries to establish reproducing churches among the nations to the glory of God. TEAM missionaries establish churches by seeking to make followers of Jesus Christ who learn and obey all that he has commanded. In certain contexts, the best means of discipleship entails the use of a variety of ministries among post-Christian/post-modern populations.

As TEAM considers ministry among post-Christian/post-modern populations, we follow a set of guidelines focused on our purpose and vision:

- Endeavors among post-Christian/post-modern populations take place where we see a confluence of spiritual and demographic factors that indicate that God is leading us to serve in this capacity.
- TEAM leadership prayerfully considers how endeavors among post-Christian/post-modern populations fulfill the objective of making disciples.
- Endeavors among post-Christian/post-modern populations are carried out in partnership with local individuals, churches or groups.
- Churches and ministries, started through TEAM's efforts among post-Christian/post-modern populations, work toward the reconciliation of all things to God through Jesus.
