

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

There are more than 100 million college and university students around the world, and the number is growing rapidly — especially in Africa, Asia and Latin America. TEAM works among university populations to share the love of Christ and build disciples who will become tomorrow's leaders.

University students in different contexts have unique needs, whether a young woman in Asia facing intense pressure from her family to succeed, or a young man in Europe discouraged about his future and wondering if anything has meaning. TEAM seeks to bring hope into every situation for students in a critical season of life, serving as teachers, mentors, English tutors, disciplers and more.

QUICK FACTS:

Shifts to technology-based economies are growing demand for highly educated citizens, especially people educated in math, science, and engineering.

Service opportunities include working with students at schools both big and small in Australia, Italy, Ukraine, Japan, and more.

The purpose of TEAM is to help churches send missionaries to establish reproducing churches among the nations to the glory of God. TEAM missionaries establish churches by seeking to make followers of Jesus Christ who learn and obey all that he has commanded. In certain contexts, the best means of discipleship entails the use of a variety of ministries with university students.

As TEAM considers ministry with university students, we follow a set of guidelines focused on our purpose and vision:

- Endeavors with university students take place where we see a confluence of spiritual and demographic factors that indicate that God is leading us to serve in this capacity.
- TEAM leadership prayerfully considers how endeavors with university students fulfill the objective of making disciples.
- Endeavors with university students are carried out in partnership with local individuals, churches or groups.
- Churches and ministries, started through TEAM's efforts with university students, work toward the reconciliation of all things to God through Jesus.
