

BUDDHIST

With hundreds of millions of adherents across vast swaths of East and South-east Asia, Buddhism is a diverse faith. Its followers share a common need to know the hope that only comes through Christ.

Dozens of experienced TEAM missionaries serve in Buddhist regions, living out their faith and demonstrating the transformative power and truth of Christ amid thousands who have never known him. We value relationship, grace and sensitivity as we share life with people of other faiths.

QUICK FACTS:

Buddhism is the dominant religion in the Far East but is increasingly popular in the West.

Service opportunities include starting new business efforts, teaching English, healthcare, and more.

The purpose of TEAM is to help churches send missionaries to establish reproducing churches among the nations to the glory of God. TEAM missionaries establish churches by seeking to make followers of Jesus Christ who learn and obey all that he has commanded. In certain contexts, the best means of discipleship entails the use of a variety of ministries among Buddhist populations.

As TEAM considers ministry among Buddhist populations, we follow a set of guidelines focused on our purpose and vision:

- Endeavors among Buddhist populations take place where we see a confluence of spiritual and demographic factors that indicate that God is leading us to serve in this capacity.
- TEAM leadership prayerfully considers how endeavors among Buddhist populations fulfill the objective of making disciples.
- Endeavors among Buddhist populations are carried out in partnership with local individuals, churches or groups.
- Churches and ministries, started through TEAM's efforts among Buddhist populations, work toward the reconciliation of all things to God through Jesus.
